

Program Highlights: What's On In January

Whether you're looking to entertain customers, inform decision-makers or motivate staff, FOXTEL Business will help your business look better than ever with an outstanding selection of upcoming highlights:

Tennis: 2012 Australian Open

16th January – 29th January

The Mac is Back – John McEnroe, a tennis icon and one of the most colourful characters in the sport's history joins the FOX SPORTS commentary team for the 2012 Australian Open. FOX SPORTS will once again provide LIVE coverage of Days 1-8 from Melbourne Park, enabling viewers to choose their preferred LIVE matches using the FOX SPORTS Active service.

Conspiracy 365

World Premiere Saturday 14th January, 7:00pm

Conspiracy 365 is the story of a year in the life of teenager Cal Ormond, who is forced to go on the run and become a fugitive as he searches for the truth behind a deadly family secret. Adapted from the best-selling novels by Australian author Gabrielle Lord.

I Survived...Stories of Australians

Wednesdays from 11th January, 8:30pm

This 8 part local series will profile the extraordinary stories of every day Australians who have overcome unbelievable and traumatic circumstances – with each person offering their own insight into the event that has now changed their life forever. I Survived...Stories of Australians will feature survivors of events including the Boxing Day tsunami, the 2009 Black Saturday bushfires, the recent Queensland floods, the London and Bali bombings, the Port Arthur Massacre and the fateful Sydney to Hobart Yacht race in 1998.

Cricket Superstar

Wednesdays, 7:30pm

Allan Border joins Lee Furlong in a nationwide search for Australia's top fifteen male cricketers. The contestants will then have to live together, while competing in a range of challenges that will test skill, stamina and perseverance for the opportunity to be crowned Australia's first Cricket Superstar!

Australia Day Top 100 BBQ Classics

Thursday 26th January, 10.00am

Fire up the BBQ and have MAX as your Australia Day soundtrack as we countdown the must have songs for any party. What will the number 1 song be? Could it be Cold Chisel, Bon Jovi, Pink or even INXS?

Celebrating Australian Cinema

Every night at 8:30pm throughout January

MOVIE GREATS is 'Celebrating Australian Cinema' throughout the month of January, where every night at 8.30pm you can watch a great Aussie film including classics such as Wolf, Creek, Two Hands, Romper Stomper, Gallipoli and The Adventures of Priscilla, Queen of The Desert.

NFL Playoffs

Various times Monday 2nd January – Monday 30th January

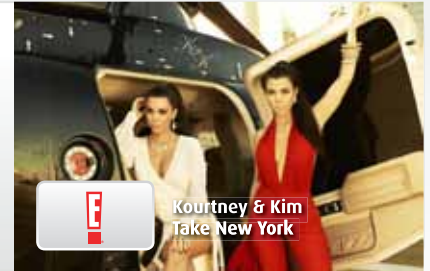

January kicks off with LIVE coverage on ESPN of the National Football League (NFL) Playoffs, setting the stage for the sport's biggest event, Super Bowl XLVI, coming in February. ESPN presents LIVE coverage this month of all the NFL Playoff action from both the AFC and NFC, closing the month with the NFL's annual face-off of the AFC's and NFC's best, the 2012 Pro Bowl, airing from Aloha Stadium in Hawaii.

Kourtney & Kim Take New York

Tuesdays at 9:30pm from January 3rd

Kourtney and Kim return to the Big Apple, along with their men, and with both couples living under one roof, New York will never be the same.

The Aussie Way Up

Sundays from 15th January, 8:30pm

15,000 kilometres from Tasmania to Darwin and no petrol stations! When not hunting for recycled oils to power the next leg of the journey, these four Aussie boys look at people and businesses that are moving in leaps and bounds toward a more sustainable, cooler future. This Gen Y adventure is a journey of epic proportions.

Anthony Bourdain: No Reservations

Mondays, 7:30pm

As he continues to explore every corner of the globe on his Emmy-winning series, Anthony Bourdain encounters the weird, wild and downright outrageous personalities and places that help define what it means to scale the international cultural landscape. In brand new episodes showcasing such diverse locations as the American Heartland, India, Dubai and even Beirut, No Reservations dives headfirst into life's colourful and rich pageant.

Due Date (MA)

Sunday 8th January, 8:30pm

Robert Downey Jr., Zach Galifianakis and Michelle Monaghan star in this comedy of errors that leads to the road trip from hell for a businessman who is forced to travel with a disaster-prone would-be actor in order to make it home for the birth of his child.

™ & © Warner Bros. Entertainment Inc.

Davos 2012

Coverage from 25th to 29th January

The global spotlight returns to Davos in Switzerland for the annual meeting of the World Economic Forum. Leaders from business, politics, academia and society will gather to consider the central theme 'The Great Transformation: Shaping New Models'. BBC World News will offer extensive coverage throughout, from expert opinion to lively debates.

